SMD Alpha Ceti classified 87 for this classification.

Alpha Ceti is a somewhat more stylish version, exhibiting more overall dairy character than her full sister SMD Mira Ceti. She also carries tremendous body length, very nice spring of rib and depth throughout. Alpha may have been overly styling on classification day as her head/muzzle and femininity scores on this classification do not seem to correspond to the cow we see. In addition to being a fine overall cow Alpha's wonderful personality suggests some entitlement approaching diva status.
